Chapter 1 Driver Licenses

Driver Licenses

This chapter is not tested hence it is just some useful information that is good to know.

Operator, Class D driver's license is what usually people get here, it let you drive a car! Minimum age is 18 to let you to drive here.

Fun fact, if you have this you can also do Class B and C mopeds with this license lmao.

Enhanced driver's license: It has a star or a flag on it. It is a federally compliant DMV issued driver license and is required for boarding domestic flight, you can't use the standard version anymore after May 7, 2025.

Permit

If you have permit you will need to be supervised by a licensed driver who is >= 21 years old and have the license for the vehicle that you're driving and is seated in the front seat.
